

Oh Captain, My Captain

Hidden in Plain View

Now I'll keep reaching for a time when all the heart we've put in will find its way back to us and fill our lives with feeling Its a passion undescribed
A burning deep inside
So Lets live our lives and supress their words we will hold our pride saying at least we tried

And you cant take that away
no matter what people say you cant try to hold us down we'll make it ours, we'll do it now

Today is your day they just wont listen
There is no way, but your way
Its your words their twisting

And people keep putting in our minds that this wont last forever Lets give it our all, and lets do it together Live for now cause its now or never I've been reading between your lines
And I'm spitting our what you've fed to me and learning how to live my own life.....

You cant take that away
no matter what people say
they will never stop us now we'll make this ours and prove how

Today is our day.....
