

summer nights are growing cold august goodbyes are getting close so lets leave all of the windows open tonight leave us no choice but to cuddle close and we'll kiss all night wake tomorrow morning with chapped lips on our faces I will pass on Vaseline and for all to see, I'll wear these battle-scars burned by your taste because I want to feel like this forever I just want to feel the way I feel now I just want to feel the way I feel now forever.

always remember the nights we shared laid out on soccer fields when we stared up at the stars trying hard to stop the hands of time, to stop the world I would do anything not to have to say goodbye.
I promised myself that I would never let her go without saying how I feel and letting her know.

that I want to feel like this forever
I just want to feel the way I feel now
I just want to feel the way I feel now forever.

Now she's on her way and it gets harder and harder each and everyday But she said that she will be home someday So she will be home someday.
