

Same To You

Hidden in Plain View

And did you ever wish you saved
All the lessons that you gave
Cus I'll save them all to you
And did you ever hope our eyes
Could be spared of all your lies
And I've got news for you
Or maybe you were just drained (Just drained)

So now I'm sure I'd like to make
You guna feel the way I felt that day
If only I could do that to you
Maybe it would prove
That we're still the same
But maybe you were just drained (Your just drained).

Tonight, well I can't try
Cus I'm tongue-tied and I'm choking again.
But this time I can't try because you're
Twisting my words and I'm choking again.

And you know I know that
And you know your weakness
Has made me weak
So understand this is something
I won't let you forget.

Tonight, well I can't try
Cus I'm tongue-tied and I'm choking again.
This time I can't try because your
Twisting my words and I'm choking again.

Now and I can't try
Cant, I can't try
And I can't try
Twisting my words again.
