Don't let me go.
Don't let me go this way.
Don't let me go off this way.

I've got my hands tied too tight behind my back, behind my back.
I've got my sights set too high above my head, above my head.
So before this goes too far it's too late.
Oh, stop me now.

Cause I can't get you out of my head.
(Oh no, oh no, oh)
I need to know, I need to know.
Tell me everything that's on your mind.
Don't let me go.
Don't let me go this way.
Don't let me go.

Oh, everything's okay,
Cause I don't believe you.
I don't believe a word you say.
Time is running out.

Cause I can't get you out of my head.
(Oh no, oh no, oh)
I need to know, I need to know.
Tell me everything that's on your mind.
Don't let me go.
Don't let me go this way.
Don't let me go.
It's okay.

Worthless like a penny in your pocket.
An empty locket around your neck.
I'm hanging onto you.
Maybe I'm over it or maybe I'm out of my head.
I don't know. all I know is...
Or maybe I'm over it.
Or maybe I'm out of my head.
There's no need to talk about it now.

Cause I can't get you out of my head
(Oh no, oh no, oh)
I need to know, I need to know.
Tell me everything that's on your mind
Don't let me go.
Don't let me go off this way.
Don't let me go away.
