

Leaving No Traces

Highasakite

The earth is the universes eyes x2

And you set out for peace but got nuclear war and bashed in the eyes of them all

The earth is the universes eyes x2

And it hasn't been viewed since before the attack
And none has been watching us by

Oh I used to smother his pride
And he lifted me by the hair
Oh i used to smother his pride
He was dragging me down the stairs

Leaving no traces the eye can see

The night has a thousand eyes x2
And you squeezed my heart and punctured my lung and that weapon would soon replace your tongue

The night has a thousand eyes x2
And you've wandered a lot through the southern ends of hearts
And that weapon would soon replace your tongue

Oh I used to smother his pride
And he lifted me by the hair
Oh i used to smother his pride
He was dragging me down the stairs x2

Leaving no traces the eye can see x2

Oh I used to smother his pride
And he lifted me by the hair
Oh i used to smother his pride
He was dragging me down the stairs x2

Leaving no traces the eye can see

The earth is the universes eyes x2
