Perpetual Fury

Burning skies, Angels of hell are marching through the stars Showing me weak lights through the dark curtains of all your se cret lies Cold winter wind Kills with no mercy the depth of my lost soul Now I realize that I lived in an endless dream of pain and sorr MO Fire lines cross the night Empires' re falling and my pride still rises Stormy seas Call me while the Black Moon rises up in the sky Demons are flying in my mind as witches at full moon night Time has come, Now you will taste the whole might of my deepest rage I've got the wind in my soul and you cannot stop this winter wi nd

Fire lines cross the night And I'm the one who never dies I'm on my way to endless sky Rainbows fall, heed the call, Screaming Perpetual Fury And I'm the one who never dies I'll cross the gates of space and time Don't stop my flight through bloody skies Of my Perpetual Fury, NO!

Dark wings grip my heart I'll try to beat them Should it be my last fight As the dusk defeats the day so you beat me, But the dawn's closing near

And I'm the one who never dies I'm on my way to endless sky Rainbows fall, heed the call, Screaming Perpetual Fury And I'm the one who never dies I'll cross the gates of space and time Don't stop my flight through bloody skies Of my Perpetual Fury, NO!
