

A Gentlement Caller, Come to settle the bill
A veteran, stepping in with a set of incredible skills
Revitalised, heads are moving back, forth, side to side
Like bobble-head Jesus on the dashboard, I'm rhyming like
There's dynamite inside the mic, kill the chat
I'm riding like a Silverback on a tiny bike, alright I'm like Awkward, dangerous, don't talk to strangers
Don't court the brainless, don't war with neighbours
We decent humans, no fucking about
You try speak the truth and throw up in your mouth
Lies are Poison, and these cats are carriers, ad men
But I'm like Harry Allen, I'm a media assassin
I ain't been affected by a carrier yet
Suffa's, not a puppet, fuck a marionette
Yep, so I'm a play the back of this mess
Till they start payin' these rappers with reality cheques, check

(Life is a battle and stress for survival)
(Got it together so clever, no-one can stop you)
(I'mma let you know, don't stop, manage to bust rule)
(Some search to better but most won't even try to)

If they're lost sounding like they're brainwashed
Seeking to relieve the grind
Think what's locked up inside of that brain box
And we can leave it all behind
Roll with me now, All with me now
We'll ride out on this cloud
Roll with me now, hold with me now
All with me because the tide is rolling out

Another chapter from the twisted corrupt, a sinners soul in it
A pacifist, but if it erupts, we in controllership
See rappers in particular attack but when I visit ya
Be actin' like my dick is the grudge, been holding it
Mate it's all been heard before, came in on your learners thought
Blazing was your way in now your sailing in a perfect storm
If albums turning gold was a murder toll
Beer, rappers and revenge, three thing I'm serving cold
It's hard to pick the reason that they're starting shit with me when It's the path of risk, the partnerships like marching with the legion
The route untraveled is packed with the brutal battle and passengers
Who been gaffled with supernatural vernacular
Stress is killing me, a head of red capillaries
Yet the name holds weight better then express delivery
The miracle three, but me inducted a Saint?
Hate me for what I am, don't love for something I ain't

(Life is a battle and stress for survival)
(Got it together so clever, no-one can stop you)
(I'mma let you know, don't stop, manage to bust rule)

Roll with me now, All with me now
We'll ride out on this cloud
Roll with me now, hold with me now
All with me because the tide is rolling out

Who am I to be brilliant? Who am I to be murderous?
Speak for the reptilian sort of like Steve Irwin was Never determined by the hand like Kermit the Frog
Got hits controlling the jukebox like I'm the Fonz
I'm the bomb with it, I have the common sense
To not compete with the sheep and go beyond the fence
I need no strong defence, when you enter your own league
Got the best of them out of their seat like I was Phil Jackson
While all the actors sit on the sidelines watching me move my magic Whole team is massive go go go gadget legs
Went from the baddest egg to making bread I am the alchemist, yep yep
Yo I am not like them, I use the dao te ching, a little Zen and the power wi thin, yep yep
Moving mountains with the power of thanks
This is how with every album we're allowed to win so now you know

(Life is a battle and stress for survival)
(Got it together so clever, no-one can stop you)
