

Ode To Solitude

HIM

Easy on the eyes, uneasy on the heart
Sew my wrists shut
Sew my wrists shut with hope straight into light
Shining bright I dare you you to dream this
And I dare you to dream this gone what I want to know what make you s mile less

Here's to the pain, the light of the oncoming train
Come on
Ode to solitude in chains
Here's to the pain as always heaven in flames
Now bleeding
Ode to solitude in chains

Map the scars of a heart bruised and torn
Loosen the noose love
Loosen the noose with love
What I want to know is why you keep me hangin

Here's to the pain, the light of the oncoming train
Come on
Ode to solitude in chains
Here's to the pain as always heaven in flames
Now bleeding
Ode to solitude in chains

If I should fail (and I will) to stay
Remember not to forget this feeling you have
I've failed
Please pretend it never happen baby

Here's to the pain, the light of the oncoming train
Come on
Ode to solitude in chains
Here's to the pain as always heaven in flames
Now bleeding
Ode to solitude in chains

Here's to the pain, the light of the oncoming train
Come on
Ode to solitude in chains
Here's to the pain as always heaven in flames
Now bleeding
Ode to solitude in chains

Ode to solitude
Ode to solitude
Ode to solitude
Ode to solitude
