

Hooks As Hands

Himsa

strident affect with a seer to the throne first take at the summer, cold sweat stands distressed with dark clouds gather run them wild, pacing lengths to the flame of the fire scorched contenders tease the fate of the tempest times habitual horror trials of sanity the savoring soul will scream for sovereignty sanctions for the streets altered states for keeps crucifiers seek poise with omission in the trade of hives youngbloods bound to sway the horde collateral damage drawn aroused on the victims swell with hooks as hands to downcast rage dare for havoc in the deadlock ruse composure from damnation masochism in a vortex consolation void chamber of redemption or infirmary with scars on layers, scabs as warriors labeled terror labeled honor cutthroats loose in the eye of their persuasive kill with hooks as hands cutthroats loose in the lust of the foreseeable future
with hooks as hands
hold the roar
