

Dead to Me

Hinder

So much for the pretty life,
I guess we're living on the darker side.
I thought you'd do me until we die
But I guess I was mistaken.

You had me thinking you were Heaven sent
But you were gone once the money was spent.
The [?] night never just won't end
And I'm not even sleeping
But I won't hurt anymore...

There's no more tears for me to cry,
No more love in you tonight.
I won't regret you,
I'll just forget you,
You're dead to me.

There's no more pieces of my heart,
I've been broken down so far.
You took it all, selfishly
You're dead to me.

So much for a second chance,
I gave you one too many of them.
You can sweet talk a heartless man
You stole it, then you broke it

Now you're begging down on your knees
[?]
You can stay there until they bleed
'Cause I'm not giving in

There's no more tears for me to cry,
No more love in you tonight.
I won't regret you,
I'll just forget you,
You're dead to me.

There's no more pieces of my heart,
I've been broken down so far.
You took it all, selfishly
You're dead to me.

I gave you a chance to speak your mind
But I know it'd be a lie.
Your not even worth the time
It takes to say goodbye

There's no more tears for me to cry,
No more loving you tonight.
I won't regret you,
I'll just forget you,
You're dead to me.

There's no more pieces of my heart,
I've been broken down so far.
You took it all away from me,

You took it all, selfishly
You're dead to me.
(You took it all away)
Ohh, dead to me
(You took it all away)
Ooh, you're dead to me,
Ohh, you're dead to me.
