

See You in Hell

Hinder

I bet Sinatra's there,
Chilling with Marilyn in her underwear.
I bet you Elvis ain't the king,
With mama's son and Joplin
Always think about the same.

Don't act like you don't party,
'cause I've seen you around,
So let's get it started, 'cause tonight it's getting down.

See you in hell, what the hell,
You never could tell, it might be like heaven.
Devil it goes, got it all, let's pour,
Let's dance around, climb down to eleven.

Everybody say hell, anybody say yeah
I smoke, I drink, I lie, I cheat,
And damn, I do it well,
See you in hell.

Down here all the girls are smoking
If you wanna fight but need a light,
The bar is always open.

Now think what you wanna think,
You only live once, you only die once,
Yeah, I just pulled a trigger.

See you in hell, what the hell,
You never can tell, it might be like heaven.
Devil it goes, got it all, let's pour,
Let's dance around, climb down to eleven.

Everybody say hell, anybody say yeah
I smoke, I drink, I lie, I cheat,
And damn, I do it well,
See you in hell.

See you in hell, what the hell,
You never can tell, it might be like heaven.
Devil it goes, got it all, let's pour,
Let's dance around, climb down to eleven.

Everybody say hell, anybody say yeah
I smoke, I drink, I lie, I cheat,
And damn, I do it well,
See you in hell.

See you in hell, what the hell,
You never can tell, it might be like heaven.
Devil it goes, got it all, let's pour,
Let's dance around, climb down to eleven.

Everybody say hell, anybody say yeah
I smoke, I drink, I lie, I cheat,
And damn, I do it well,
See you in hell.
