

Breathe In Breathe Out

His Statue Falls

What's up I can see that you're tortured
Don't say you're not
What the fuck went wrong these days
If I deserve an answer please let me know
Oh, oh, oh...

What the fuck went wrong these days
We had a time when I was part of your mind

We used to be some kind of friends back in the days
It took some time to realize what's happening
You gave your best you played you're role so good
I noticed way too late what you were up to
Why are you hurting me what have I done
If there are reasons for this tell me some
I can't believe the way you talk to me

You'd better stop it now that's all I have to say

By now there is no need to panic
Breathe in, breathe out
If you're really about to break with me
Be sure there's no turning back

There are so many dreams but so many times
We build these walls to live behind
Tell me what is left inside
When will we leave this graveyard

What's up I can feel that you're wrong here
Don't say you're not
What the fuck went wrong these days
If I deserve an answer
Please let me know
Please let me know
Let me know
There are so many dreams

There are so many dreams but so many times
We build these walls to live behind
Tell me what is left inside
When will we leave this graveyard

There are so many dreams but so many times
We build these walls to live behind
Tell me what is left inside
When will we leave this graveyard

By now there's still no need to panic.
