

Backed By Theory

Hit The Switch

Consumerism tainted by the contraband, the perfect solvent is ordained and labeled as procaine, productivity has lost its substance, when product is a bust, and everyone agrees trade isn't fair, so take gluttony,
I don't quite get this fascination with the cause, to elevate your greed, and your grave relentless, will build a wall between the bond of equality and prosperity.
so I remain,
a concerned short term memory with little say, but I'm not afraid,
a swell controversy,
strong convictions backed by theory, a fact in good time, a solemn idea adverse to the mind. open for interpretation.
