Hit The Switch

We road unto a sea of endless magnificent happenings,
The ever pending potential that manifest all life,
Rays of light bending through galaxies, have navigated space and time while the naked eye observes, attraction made when your concentrated thoughts, collide into all of creation, to make the most amazing force this world has witnessed!

Wide awake and in the moment within our hearts we know there's more than this,

When the mind escapes this realm there shines a glow,
That you cant help but show!

Where will this take you now?
Alive well and full of hope,
Inside swells a brilliant love,
The great unknown so beckoning,
The notion leads me on,
The vital uninhabited that still lies unbeknown...
