

Nothing Personal

Holiday Parade

It started out when she said to me
I've had enough of your personality
And that's the moment she set me free
And I'm all right
I will be alright now

[CHORUS]

I know you're giving up slowly
Now you're takin' me back
Back to the day when
You swore all you wanted was to hold me
Too bad your hands are full
It's nothing personal.

Before you're ready for someone else,
You gotta learn to be alright by your self.
You think you're leaving me on that shelf but,
I'm all right
I will be alright now

[CHORUS]X2

On and on you go you're gone
I'm gonna get get back to
Finally moving
On and on you go you're gone
You're finally leaving the place where
You had me all along

I
Know
You're giving up, giving up
And now you're taking me back to the day when,
You swore all you wanted was to hold me
Too bad your hands are full
It's nothing personal

[CHORUS]X2
