Holiday Parade

I'll take a holiday for a way
To where the bright lights burn a little less every day
I'm going to find a place that's just for me
It may take forever
I know
Forever'd be ok

I'm counting down the headlights thinking
That I believe the world is sinking
And everybody longs for something
I'd give it all again to feel it

I met a pretty girl from the coast of Spain
And as she'd count the stars she knew them all by name
She had the saddest eyes I've ever seen
But when she smiled
I'd know
Exactly what she means

I'm counting down the headlights thinking
That I believe the world is sinking
And everybody longs for something
I'd give it all again to feel it

It's how the sunlight burns my eyes
Every morning when I rise
It's how I'm pulled to the horizon
Like a love that just won't die
And when the sun becomes the moon
It breaks the world I fell into
It's how it all comes back to you
And I know, I'm not going to change

Counting down the headlights thinking
That I believe the world is sinking
And everybody longs for something
I'd give it all again to feel it
Give it all again to feel it
Give it all again to feel it

I'll run until the end of the time
The second hand slowly unwinds
There's time to rest after I die
And until then these days are like
Our last goodbye to what we know
We'll pack out bags and hit the road
These tickets and passports lead me home
As we sing all night

Na na na na na... whoa...
Na na na na na... whoa...
I'm gone away, we're gonna find that something
Give it all again to feel it
I'm gone away, and this time I'm not coming back
Give it all again to feel it
I'll give it away
I'll give it away

Give it all again to feel it

I'm going away
(Give it all again to feel it)
I'm going away
(Give it all again to feel it)
I'm going away
(Give it all again to feel it)
I'm going away
