

Someone Else's Eyes

The Hollies

If you're going now
There's nothin' more to say
So don't turn around
Unless you mean to stay
'Cause we've been through this
So many times before
It doesn't make it anymore

There never seemed to be
A time for explanations
Everything just seems
To move so quickly now
But if I never seem
To reach your expectations
I'll make it up to you, somehow

Don't say goodbye
Don't search for what
You'll never find
In someone else's eyes
Don't say goodbye
The answer that you want
Will never lie
In someone else's eyes
In someone else's eyes

After all this time
I thought you knew me better
Never believed that I
Would ever see you go

Don't say goodbye
Don't search for what
You'll never find
In someone else's eyes
Don't say goodbye
The answer that you want
Will never lie
In someone else's eyes
In someone else's eyes

In someone else's eyes
