

Too Much Too Soon

The Hollies

You catch my eye
You draw me closer
So hard to resist

No one ever thought that it would feel like this You're all that I have ever dreamed of Can't believe my heart
How can I feel so much when it's just the start?

And time will tell it
Here and now
Becomes another day
But still I'm scared that it won't last
You know how people say

So tell me am I crazy to follow in love?
Risking my heart for the sake of one
Giving it all away to you
Too much, too soon

So tell me am I crazy to follow in love?
Risking my heart for the sake of one
Giving it all away to you
Too much, too soon

And nothing's perfect
Sure feels like it
When I'm in your arms
You keep me safe and I will feel no harm

Don't have to try too hard to make it
Comes easily to us
Oh, I pray that what we got will always last
Yeah

And time will tell it
Here and now
Becomes another day
But still I'm scared that it won't last
You know how people say

So tell me am I crazy to follow in love?
Risking my heart for sake of one
Giving it all away to you
Too much, too soon

So tell me am I crazy to follow in love?
Risking my heart for sake of one
Giving it all away to you
Too much, too soon

And time will tell it
Here and now
Becomes another day
But still I'm scared (still I'm scared) that it won't last
You know how people say

So tell me am I crazy to follow in love?
Risking my heart for the sake of love
Giving it all away to you
Too much, too soon

So tell me am I crazy to follow in love?
Risking my heart for the sake of love
Giving it all away to you
Too much, too soon

So tell me am I crazy to follow in love?
Risking my heart for the sake of one
Giving it all away to you
Too much, too soon

So tell me am I crazy to follow in love?
Risking my heart for sake of one
Giving it all away to you
Too much, too soon
