

You Know He Did

The Hollies

He made a fool of you
I said he would
You know he did
How many times did I say
He'd let you down
Well it's a sin
You're playin' a losin' game
Well you're a fool, you just can't win
It's gonna be hard for you
When you're alone and need someone

Need someone to hold you tight
Need someone when you're alone at night
Thinkin' of me, thinkin' of me

Need someone to hold you tight
Need someone when you're alone at night
Thinkin' of me, thinkin' of me

I'm not gonna wait so long for you to call
'Cause I'll be gone
'Cause he's made a fool of you
I said he would
You know he did
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
You know he did
Oh, you know he did
Oh yeah, yeah, baby
You know he did
Listen to me honey, well
You know he did
