

I Am Who I Am

Holly Dunn

Whatever you want I've been willing to try
But whatever I do you're not satisfied
Why don't you admit that I'm not what you need
So I can find someone who'll love me for me

I am who I am
I am who I am

You've tried to remake me again and again
You can bend but not brake me I'm taking a stand
You get what you see baby

I am who I am

I've been changing myself from my hair to my shoes
Now I'm changing my mind about changing for you
I'll never be perfect but I'll be alright
Now that I've started to live my own life

I am who I am
I am who I am

You've tried to remake me again and again
You can bend but not brake me I'm taking a stand
I'm all I can be baby

I am who I am
No regrets, no apologies
I can't be right for you if it's not right for me

I am who I am
I am who I am
You've tried to remake me again and again
You can bend but not brake me I'm taking a stand

I'm nobody else baby
I am who I am
I'm all I can be baby
I am who I am
