

He's Making A Fool Out Of You

Holly Williams

Songwriters: Jones, Chuck; Williams, Holly;

I see clearly, I'm on the outside
I've been watching you fall from the start
I can't believe it, how'd you get here?
I remember you when you were smart

It's not that you've lost all that now
But blind is the love that leaves no room for doubt

He's making a fool out of you
He's making a fool out of you
He's making a fool out of you
But you're still smiling, still smiling

Have you forgotten all that you taught me?
Never lay down your heart for a lie
'Cause it's gonna hurt you when your eyes open
And you shed all those tears, you've denied

Well, everyone needs someone else
But love only grows when you don't lose yourself

He's making a fool out of you
He's making a fool out of you
He's making a fool out of you
But you're still smiling, still, you're still smiling

So have you forgotten all that you taught me?
Never lay down your heart for a lie
