

I'm So Over You

Hollywood Ending

Yesterday my life was on track
I never thought about looking back
Yesterday I didn't have to get my mind off you
And now it feels so long ago
A couple hours seem years before
Cuz now everything's changing

[Chorus]

Stop calling my phone
I'm so over you
Just leave me alone
I'm so over you
Your chance is gone
I'm so over you
Ya gotta move on
This song is all my proof
I'm so over
I'm so over you

Now today I think I'm turning a page
Don't want you back
This is our fate
And now today
I'm staring right through your web of lies
And now it feels so long ago
A couple hours seem years before
Cuz now everything's changing

I could've guessed that this would fail
I could've guessed that you would do this to me
It's kinda funny that now you call
Too bad it doesn't mean anything at all
Just leave me alone
I'm so over you
