

You

Hollywood Ending

Got that sunset vibe
That drives me wild
It's true ooh ooooooh ooh ooh
That don't care style
That makes me smile
It's You ooh ooooooh ooh ooh

You hit me like an earthquake, first date
Abercrombie soulmate
We can do this all day
Jaw droppin'
Show stoppin'
Stuntin' like you're Mary Poppins
(Let's get this party started)

Your look
Your laugh
Your love
If only you knew

That all I ever think about's YOU
When You give me, give me those eyes
Baby, is this even real life?
'Cus you got me breath-breathing sunshine
It's all the little things that You do
That always get me, get me tongue tied
Come on, won't you give me a sign
And baby tell me, tell me you're mine
You're all I ever think about

Midnight swim, I caught You in my po-ooooool
If I jump in, can I kiss You too? ooh ooh ooh
That body slammin'
What's happenin'?
Got the speakers blastin'
Neighbors are in Aspen
Yeah, I'm mackin', You're laughin'
But Darlin' this is smashing
(Yeah, I said Smahing!)

Your look
Your laugh
Your love
Am I getting this through?

That all I ever think about's YOU
When You give me, give me those eyes
Baby, is this even real life?
'Cus you got me breath-breathing sunshine
It's all the little things that You do
That always get me, get me tongue tied
Come on, won't you give me a sign
And baby tell me, tell me you're mine
You're all I ever think about

Your look
Your laugh

Your love
Your touch
It's You

Your lips
On mine
Can't get enough
It's You

Your look
Your laugh
Your love
Your touch
It's You

Your lips
On mine
Can't get enough

All I ever think about's YOU
When You give me, give me those eyes
Baby, is this even real life?
'Cus you got me breathing sunshine
It's all the little things that You do
That always get me, get me tongue tied
Come on, won't you give me a sign
And baby tell me, tell me you're mine
You're all I ever think about (You)
You're all I ever think about (You)
You're all I ever think about (You)
Think about You
You're all I ever think about
