

Bang Bang

Hollywood Undead

I fall to pieces because I'm already broken
The words, they come, but then they softly go unspoken
You walk the lonely path, the only path you've chosen
Every moment's taken away and every second's stolen
Can't hold on but I won't let go of everything I'm holding
When you feel it too, I hope you second that emotion
Your dreams are slipping by because your eyes are always open
Life is like a gun, it's not the only one that's loaded

Your life can end inside in a moment
It slips by the more you try to hold it
It's alright 'cause everybody knows it
Life's like a trigger when you pull it, like a bullet
Bang bang bang
Bang bang bang
Bang bang bang
Bang bang bang

The days are getting shorter, infinitive disorder
Swimming in the torture, sanity is on the border
No time to wonder why, why I'm not afraid to die
My crimes will satisfy so who's got time to say goodbye?
Every time I'm losing control, lose a little piece of my soul
Too late for me to crawl up out this hole, so come on, let's go
Ain't no way to justify, this life keeps rushing by It's hard to stay alive but at least you know I fucking tried

Your life can end inside in a moment
It slips by the more you try to hold it
It's alright 'cause everybody knows it
Life's like a trigger when you pull it, like a bullet
Bang bang bang
Bang bang bang
Bang bang bang
Bang bang bang

You'll never live until you know that you can die
You'll have to walk before you try to fly
You'll never know what's real in life until you pull it
Never see it coming like a bullet
Sometimes the truth can hurt inside
Don't you ever wonder why?
Let me know when it's time to pull it
I'll pull you through this bullet
You wanna know what it's like to fly?
Buy yourself a pretty life
Let me know when it's time to pull it
I'll pull you through this bullet
You wanna live before you die?
Sell yourself a pretty life
Let me know when it's time to pull it
I'll pull you through this bullet

Your life can end inside in a moment
It slips by the more you try to hold it
It's alright 'cause everybody knows it
Life's like a trigger when you pull it, like a bullet

Bang bang bang
Bang bang bang
Bang bang bang
Bang bang bang
