Malicious Race

You can't change the world In this age you will ever Be until your soul You see in hell If you could turn it Around you Destroy the things You need running Into a deeper void You peel a dual Mind in a never saw Dimension it's hard To make a choice For those who see The day in the time You stand behind Your body your Rules are breaking Down by searching For the sunject in Times of greed and Blood a shadowill Come inside in your heart And thoughts unholy lies Invocation Distant mind Unrevealed Morbid souls Deep in your mind The human race Malicious horror In a new decade It's hard to feel That deal Unleashed mind Is like a game Malicious horror New decade Exploitation in branded pain
