

When The Reign Comes Down

Holy Soldier

You see it all around you
It's everywhere you turn
And like a beast that stalks the night
It's deadly hunger burns
It feeds on the lust and greed
In the wicked hearts of men
Hunts you down
It's the hound of hell
He's on your heels again

Desire conceived
In the mind it breeds
'Till it's giving birth to sin
Sin brings death
And the wicked won't rest
Will we ever see the end?

When the reign comes down
Death, the beast, the liar
When the reign comes down
They all will burn with fire

It motivates the rapist
It moves the hand that kills
Fills the heart with the wrath of Cain
And blood begins to spill
The scavenger of lost souls
It feeds as they expire
Licks the lips of the mouth of hell
And spews eternal fire

Desire conceived
In the mind it breeds
'Till it's giving birth to sin
Sin brings death
And the wicked won't rest
Will we ever see the end?

When the reign comes down
Death, the beast, the liar
When the reign comes down
They all will burn with fire

When the reign comes down
The sky is raining fire
When the reign comes down
The flames are reaching higher
When the reign comes down
The scarlet moon is rising
When the reign comes down
A face that shines as lightning

Death, the beast, the liar
They'll choke on their desire
When the reign comes down

The sky is raining fire
The flames are rising higher
When the reign comes down
While Babylon is burning
When the reign comes down
The world stops turning
When the reign comes down
His face will shine as lightning
