

She Said...

Home Grown

When I think about her, I just get down.
Knowing that she doesn't want me around.
Maybe if she would try.
Things would work out.
But I know that it's useless to maintain this state of hopelessness cuz when i see her.. she said she's got better things to do.

Masturbations' left me alone.
I can't even talk to myself on the phone.
Maybe if she would try.
Things would work out.
But i know that it's useless to think that she'd love me
Cuz she is a stupid bitch an' she said she's got better guys to do.

My heads spinning around I can't think about it.
Maybe I'm someone she... she can't understand.
