

Single All The Way

Home Grown

I'm so happy that I'm a single guy
No more relationships cuz I don't want to try and make them work out right
I'm not being nice.
When I got rid of you it was the best day of my life yeah
I don't want you
I don't need you
I won't sleep with you.
Stay away from me.
So what, you're sad
I'm glad.
I'm over what we had
Who cares about our past, I'm never looking back.
Cry to your friends and lie, "I'm the asshole type."
No matter what you say you'll always wait in line yeah
I don't want you.
I don't need you.
I won't sleep with you.
Stay away from me.
