

So She

Homeshake

So she's doing something I wouldn't do
Trying to be a better person, I guess Doesn't matter how it's been working out at people nasty (Getting pretty nasty) yeah she's been talking about Ain't matter something I can't believe Won't be long till she'll be carrying She'll be her, I'll be me, we'll be alone

So she says things she shouldn't say people no place
Maybe it's the Maybe there's a little part of it dying to me
Something I never agreed
If she wants maybe she'll gimme a call
Gotta nothing to say at all

So she said, "Hey," I said, "Hey, what's up?"
How's it going? Oh, you know, pretty good
Trying to stay busy and Couple things I didn't mention
I can feel the space between every room
And I bet you that she's feeling the same
Okay, well, I guess I'll be seeing you
Wishing we were speaking freely again

So she says things she shouldn't say
Lots of people she don't know in another place
Maybe it's the Maybe there's a little part of it dying to me
Something I never agreed
If she wants maybe she'll gimme a call
Gotta nothing to say at all
