We've got nowhere to go
We've got time to waste
We've got nothing to show for it
Just a bitter taste

We'll follow the sun, and the sun will go from east to west We wanna cook on gas, but we're not alight So we're not there yet

We can go on 'til the evening, honey
And wake up in the sunshine
I wouldn't stay here, not for love or money
I'll wake up and you'll be mine

We'll run until we get there Yeah stick it to the next man stopping us We'll make it a better place, yeah Yeah fingers crossed for the both of us

We've got no cares in the world No need to break a cold sweat It ain't gonna come to us anytime soon So we better go get

We'll follow the sun, and the sun will go from east to west We wanna cook on gas, but we're not alight So we're not there yet

We can go on 'til the evening, honey And wake up in the sunshine I wouldn't stay here, not for love or money I'll wake up and you'll be mine We can go on 'til the evening, honey And wake up in the sunshine I wouldn't stay here, not for love or money I'll wake up and you'll be mine We can go on 'til the evening, honey And wake up in the sunshine I wouldn't stay here, not for love or money I'll wake up and you'll be mine We can go on 'til the evening, honey And wake up in the sunshine I wouldn't stay here, not for love or money I'll wake up and you'll be mine
