

Living A Lie

Honor Society

Here we are, once again
Lying here, in my bed
So perfect that I never wanna wake up from this dream
Sunrise, you're out the door
Dumped your dirty little secrets left on the floor
You're my only one, but I guess you had another me

You think you're so slick
Did you think I wouldn't find out?
I won't stand for it

I don't want to
Cause I need you
But I gotta let you go
On the surface
It was perfect
But underneath it all
You were Living A Lie
You were Living A Lie
Living A Lie, oh

Now it all makes sense
What I heard from my friends
You're so nervous, that Imma tell you
Never again, never again

You think you're so slick
Did you think I wouldn't find out?
I won't stand for it

I don't want to
Cause I need you
But I gotta let you go
On the surface
It was perfect
But underneath it all
You were Living A Lie
You were Living A Lie
Living A Lie, oh

Bridge!

You broke my heart
Whether you meant to or not
Now we're falling apart

So I got burned
It's a lesson learned
And now it's your turn to see...

That you want me
You need me
You don't want me to go
On the surface
It was perfect
But underneath it all

You were Living A Lie
You were Living A Lie
Living A Lie, oh

I don't want to
Cause I need you
But I gotta let you go
But underneath it all
You were Living A Lie
Living A Lie, oh

I don't want to cause I need you
On the surface it was perfect

You were Living A Lie
You were Living A Lie
Living A Lie, oh

I don't want to cause I need you

You were Living A Lie
You were Living A Lie
Living A Lie, oh
