

Is This the Day?

Hoobastank

Is this the day? My final curtain called.
What have I done? Looking back on it all.
So many have cried. Out of love, out of faint.
Unsaid "goodbye". Is this the day?

And if it is - I'll be okay
With letting go of everything.
I'll leave it all behind, it's been quite a ride.
So many laughs, so many tears.
All my dreams and all my fears
Will all get washed away. If this is the day.

Is this the day, that I've been preparing for?
Mending the wounds, that I've should have done before.
And all of the love. Love that I gave away.
Will I now what it's for? Is there something more?
I'll found out if this is the day.

And if it is - I'll be okay
With letting go of everything.
I'll leave it all behind, it's been quite a ride.
So many laughs, so many tears.
All my dreams and all my fears
Will all get washed away. If this is the day.

Is this the day, when I'll finally get answers
To questions that I've had so long?
And is this the day that there'll be no tomorrow?
For tomorrow I could be gone.

But you don't have to cry.
I will be alright.
You don't have to cry.
I will be alright.

Cause if it is - I'll be okay
With letting go of everything.
I'll leave it all behind, it's been quite a ride.
So many laughs, so many tears.
All my dreams and all my fears
Will all get washed away. If this is the day.

If it is - I'll be okay
With letting go of everything.
I'll leave it all behind, will no say "goodbye".
So many laughs, so many tears.
All my dreams and all my fears.
Will all get washed away. If this is the day.

If this is the day.
If this is the day.
Cause I will be alright
