Hoodoo Gurus

What is it you want from me?
There isn't much I will not do.
If it's only company
You know, I might need that too.
Won't you
Come anytime - I'm a man of leisure,
Come anytime, I await your pleasure.

There's nothing new beneath the sun We've butchered every sacred cow Don't tell me about all the things you might have done Just tell me what are you doing now - right now.

Come anytime, I won't give you pressure Come anytime - I can wait forever And if you can't make up your mind We could make it up together.

Things like this happen every day Whatever happens, it's O.K. Why be afraid when we've got it made - I'll never ask you to explain.

What is it you want from me?
You won't shock me easily.
Maybe it's your heart's desire,
Maybe it's your wildest dream,
Maybe I'm a gun-for-hire but,
Baby, don't we make quite a team, Don't we?
Don't we?
Come anytime (you're so inclined) I won't give you trouble
Come anytime (you're going blind) or you're seeing double
And I have never been the kind who'd want to Burst your bubble.
Come anytime.
