

I Was The One

Hoodoo Gurus

Darling, this is goodbye.
Kiss me, I don't know why.
You were always beautiful when you closed your eyes.
Leave now, while we still can.
Let's not wait until it all gets out of hand.
You're looking for a criminal, well, I'm a guilty man.
I was the one.

We were wrong from the start
Maybe we tried just a little too hard.
You don't have to blame yourself,
You always played your part.
I was the one.
I was.

Darling, look at us now, look at us now
History won't put us down, won't put us down
Don't let anybody say you could have worked it out.
I was the one.
