

End Of Days

Hoods

Pushed for the last time I can see no point all I see is Lies Convenience keeps me here I trust no one- trust no one.

Watch it all fall- watch it fall apart- your creation has failed

Still see the sheep follow blind?

Give them lies with no direction at all- give them lies.

This time I'll fight I'll give everything because I want you all to die.

You can have it all.

I'm already out.

fk all yours games.

It's all over.

It's the end of days- the end of days.

I'll take myself out with a blast.

I want to kill you all, slit your wrists.

I'll kill this world I feel I'm already dead. Locked in this cell.

Locked in a cell with no escape.

I want to watch you all die.

If I could reach inside it would be the last time I'd ever cry-
cry
