

Boys Will Be Boys

The Hooters

With every step I take
I get one step in step with you
With every move you make
I can't wait to make my move
Got your voice buzzing in my head
And a roller coaster down my spine

Well, don't you know that boys will be boys
And I could never live my life without you
Sometimes you make me feel
Like I got a heart full of toys
Oh baby, boys will be boys

Tell me what can I do
'Cause I can't change the things I said
I can't help the way I feel
Or what goes on inside my head
Bad news and broken dreams
In time will fade away

Well, don't you know that boys will be boys
But baby, I'm a man since the day I found you
Sometimes you make me feel
Like I got a heart full of toys
Oh baby, boys will be boys

And don't you know that girls will be girls
And I just wanna live anyway that I want to
From either side of the fence
Vivre la difference
So help me, boys will be boys

Got your voice buzzing in my head
And a roller coaster down my spine
Well, don't you know that boys will be boys
Boys will, boys will be, boys will be boys
