

Free Again

The Hooters

When one door closes up
Another door will open up for you
Open up for you
I've waited long enough
And now I'm feeling strong enough to say
Each and every day

That I'm free again
Nothing's gonna bring me down
Free again
I found me again
Back on solid ground
Free again

When the rain is falling down
And stormy winds have blown you all around
Get up off the ground
Well, I was free before
I ever knew what being free was for
I've opened up the door

And I'm free again
Nothing's gonna bring me down
Free again
I found me again
Back on solid ground
Free again

Free
Free
Free again

Free
Free
Free again
