

Until I Find You Again

The Hooters

Who will call my name who will I call friend life won't be the same

time has had it's way my faith is at it's end I won't rest a day

somewhere on the mountain somewhere in a valley somewhere on a sidewalk somewhere in an alley somewhere I'll be watching somewhere I'll be waiting though the road is winding someday I'll be finding you

I'll be far away
my search will never end but in my heart you'll stay
