Hooverphonic

We can go up north
Go up north
Go up north
But we cannot run
We cannot run
We cannot run from
All the daily pressure
All restricted measures

Do you still want more
Intriguing things to explore?

We can hide down south
Way down south
Way down south
But we shouldn't doubt
We shouldn't doubt
Our imagination

It's the drug we're on
I've got to ask you

Do you still want more
Intriguing things to adore?

All the lights go out
Out of the blue
I hear you whisper subtle words

Do you still want more
Intriguing things to explore?
Do you still want more
Intriguing things to adore?
