

No More Sweet Music

Hooverphonic

I was told about a second chance
Now I know it's not a rule in a game called romance
I was fooling around

We lie and we cheat, desire indeed
I knew where this would lead us to when I was fooling around
I was fooling around

No more
No more sweet music
Just straight
Tell me straight

(If you you gotta do what you gotta do)

No more
No more sweet music
Just straight
Tell me straight

We know there is no happy end
But still I'm tempted every time we're fooling around
We are fooling around

Now know there is no second chance
In this last game of romance, too much fooling around
Too much fooling around

No more
No more sweet music
Just straight
Tell me straight

(If you you gotta do what you gotta do)

No more
No more sweet music
Just straight
Tell me straight

(If you you gotta do what you gotta do)

Know there is no second chance
Not in this game called romance
There won't be a happy end
Know that there wasn't and won't be a chance

No more
No more sweet music
Just straight
Tell me straight

(If you you gotta do what you gotta do)

No more
No more sweet music
Just straight

Tell me straight
