

Radio Silence

Hooverphonic

I feel so frightened about what's gonna happen today
I feel excited about the fact there's no guarantee
The music seems darker whenever you hide
The music seems louder whenever you don't make a sound

You're driving me crazy
Don't you dare to stand back
Driving me crazy
I'm ready for you to attack

I am frustrated about all, all the things you don't say
I feel neglected whenever you turn your back on me
You're telling a story without any words
Did anyone tell you that radio silence can hurt

You're driving me crazy
Don't you dare to stand back
You're driving me crazy
I'm ready for you to attack
I can not stand radio silence and it's making me bleed
I am crazy because of you

Turning your back on me
Won't solve a goddamn thing
Why don't you
Scream and Shout
