

Wake Up

Hooverphonic

You're the needle in my veins
Pleasure mostly ends in pain
Temptation is a part of us
But us is driving me insane
Now it's time to make decisions
Yes ain't easy but no's too safe

Wake up
Don't tell me what do
Wake up
Don't tell me what to say
But there's one thing you can tell
And that's how I'd feel
When there's no more you

We don't need no competition
In the end this is no game
Deliver me your best and I will give you what is left of me
Excuses are the final drop
Excuses don't relieve the pain
Solitude ain't so bad when there's nothing left for us to gain
