Hooverphonic

Tell me baby where did you sleep last night
I heard noises in the cupboard were you trying to hide
Because you should know
How much I hate this
If you were I'll hit your hiding place
Until sunrise

And I'm falling in love
And I'm falling in love
Cause I need your loving
Everyday and every night
And I'm falling in love

Tell me baby where did you sleep last night
I heard noises in the cupboard were you trying to hide
Because you should know
How much I hate this
If you were I'll hit your hiding place
Until sunrise

And I'm falling in love
And I'm falling in love
Cause I need your loving
Everyday and every night
And I'm falling in love
