

Hellbound

Hopes Die Last

I am the dark feelings in your head
The shadow that follows you everywhere
I am your grief and the tears you shed
I'm by your side when you drop dead
I am the dark feelings in your head
The shadow that follows you everywhere

Commit suicide
It only takes a while
It only takes a while

With devil's wind on my back I ascend
I've been to hell I will never forget
And when my soul came to an end
I came back just to bring you down there
You'll fly high till you see me again
I've been to hell I will never forget
I'll come back with your head in my hands
And I'll haunt your soul till you fucking kill yourself

And suddenly I hear the wind (that wind it's me)
This cold is freezing me
This can't be it, this can't be death (yeah that is me)
This fucking cold is me

I am the blood that drops from your eyes
I satisfy my hunger with cries
No matter how you try to hide
You're heading to the endless night

So commit suicide
Commit suicide

I am the dark feelings in your head
The shadow that follows you everywhere
I am your grief and the tears you shed
I'm by your side when you drop dead

Forget the daylight
Look at my cold eyes
They will steal your smile
Tonight our destiny collides

And suddenly...
This cold is freezing me

And suddenly I hear the wind (that wind it's me)
This cold is freezing, freezing me
This can't be death
This can't be death
