

Keep Your Hands Off

Hopes Die Last

Keep your fuckin hands off

Maybe you think you're tough
Because you wear some leather
You think that I'm afraid
And it's so funny brother
If you wanna try
You gotta make it better
Cause I'm the one who will ruin all your dreams forever

Keep your hands off

That's what I suggest
Don't even look at them
Don't wake the devil up
Don't fuck with me again
I know what's going on
Just not sure if you do
This is the end of your trip if you don't let them go

She said
Hold me when you're trembling
He said
Stand up till you're dead
Forever and ever
They will live in me

Keep your hands off

You will see me there
When I kill your brothers
Can't wait for you to stare
While I kill your daughter
Then you'll see me there
When I walk away
I'm the bad guy that leads you to the better place

I don't give a shit
About the things you say
I have seen so many
Ended up praying
Praying in front of me
Doing it silently
Cause they knew that I don't like to hear apologies
I don't give a shit
