

Lastnight's Goodbye

Hopes Die Last

Open arms to reach my hands
I'm afraid I realized
I'm afraid you're gonna leave this place

Another way to feel again and again
What gave sense to this what gave sense to my life
This is the last time for a sight
It's the night that ends all nights
I want to be the last frame in your eyes

Trying everyday to break the line
That holds me tied
Strictly to the ground

And all my convictions fade away
What I'm holding on my chest
It's your disappearing hand
And now I'm giving you my last kiss
The last time I feel your breath

Tell me this isn't happening to me
Now it's up to you to find a way out of here
So I became a stranger for you
And even to myself
Now I can't smile no more
Because it seems to be the end

Trying everyday to break the line
That holds me tied
Strictly to the ground

And all my convictions fade away
What I'm holding on my chest
It's your disappearing hand
And now I'm giving you my last kiss
The last time I feel your breath

It was never my dream
To be with you
No never been my dream
It's meant to be

And now I'm here between heaven and ice
But words are not friends of mine
So all I've got to say is goodbye
