

Endeavor

Hopesfall

each new day draws near the final hour lamentations for a breaking dawn on this endeavor for the truth waiting in the shadows of a recent fall looking up at the darkened sky that only gets worse yearning for a cathartic experience to break the shackles of my own time the only witness to the abolition of man or death is the destiny of all bleakness the end
but a light on the horizon my will surpasses
my failures
my goals
my triumph
my grave
awaits every step taken in defiance of this world leads and another will follow
