

In Reflection

Hopesfall

summer of evidence the lights never lie yet so long a delay sparkling from in and out of the clouds i will relay the message sent to all that matter for i am a messenger to find the lost and make them whole this comission i have taken to my heart to the world the curl is spent darkening through this day but lasting for a thousand and many more in reflections of you
