

Let Down

Hot Chelle Rae

Let down, let down, let down
Let down by love
Let down, let down, let down
Let down by love
I'm always falling for the same things
Let down, let down by love
Let down by love
It's a constant hit or miss thing

It always happens on a Monday
I wake up to my wake up call
And I was thinking it was one way
But you weren't on the same wavelength at all
And now the girl falls out

Let down, let down, let down
Let down by love
I'm always falling for the same things
Let down, let down by love
Let down by love
It's a constant hit or miss thing

I should be asking for directions
'Cause nothing here is making sense
And I'm a sucker for attention
I give too much and lose my self-defense
And then I can't pretend

Yeah I'm let down, let down, let down
Let down by love
I'm always falling for the same things
Let down, let down by love
Let down by love
It's a constant hit or miss thing

I tried so hard to tell myself
Don't you fall for someone else
And then I see a pretty girl
Ready and waiting to wreck my world

Let down, let down, let down
Let down by love
I'm always falling for the same things
(I'm always falling)
Let down, let down by love
Let down by love
It's a constant hit or miss thing
(It's a constant hit or miss)
Let down, let down, let down
Let down by love
Always falling, I'm always falling
Let down, let down by love
(I'm always falling)
Let down by love
I'm always falling 'cause I'm so let down
