

Shine

Hot Chelle Rae

You love me, but you've left me
And I'm empty. The world just keeps spinning and changing
The sun, it burns like lovers' tunes.
It's raining in my head and I know exactly where I stand.
You're not there to hold my hand.

Your love is so far away but the memories still remain
And the light that's behind your eyes will forever shine in my mind

I'm still here, where you left me,
And I'm alright, it feels like I've lost it, it's over.
Our picture still sits in it's frame, just let me let go of thi s pain.
My heart's still holding up
I need you now, I can't move on

Your love is so far away but the memories still remain
And the light that's behind your eyes will forever shine in my mind

You loved me, you left me
And I'm empty, it feels, it feels like I lost it, it's over
Our picture stills sits in it's frame

Your love is so far away but the memories still remain
And the light that's behind your eyes will forever shine in my mind
